

i am a long haul trucker.. i listen totally to xm radio i use the weather and road reports also it is a service i paid for the am bands and fm both fade out when i need them and this is why i got xm for the clear service but if you make them take it away i will have to be forced to put a tv in the truck for it because the other bands will never have me listening to them